DOINGS OF THE RACE.

Twenty-one of our teachers in the District of Columbia schools were married during the summer.

Howard University, Washington, D. C., has just added 63 new members to its academic and professional faculty.

Woolworth's five and ten-cent stores, in Chicago, have finally surrendered and hired twenty of our girls of that city as clerks. The battle has been on for months.

I have never heard a Negro mentioned at Harvard University, only to be condemned! I have never heard a Negro mentioned at Chicago University, except to be condemned! —Dr. Carter G. Woodson, Washington, D. C.

Frank Merrick (white), age 29, 316 N. Pine St., Baltimore, Md., after an all-night vigil on a house in which his colored wife, Mabel, was with another man, shot her to death the evening of Oct. 3 shortly after she left the house.

A new edition of America's "Tenth Man," remarkable sixteen page survey of the Afro-American's contribution to American history and progress, has just been brought out by the Commission on Interracial Cooperation, headquarters, 409 Palmer Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Recent travellers in South Africa have discovered white men and women as slaves of a black chief in the Kalahari desert. Although they have been living in bondage for generations, the fact of their captivity and enslavement has, by merest chance, reached civilization.

Sept. 29, Judge Claude C. Pittman (white), of Bartow County, Georgia, Superior Court, in a charge delivered to the grand jury declared that the reign of the mob is the reign of anarchy and will not be tolerated by a free, liberty loving, and law-abiding people.

Julius Fuentis, age 28, and Frances Hart (white), age 15, were married, recently, at Elkton, Md., tho the state has a law against intermarriage. In Philadelphia, the other day, Fuentis explained it by saying his light color fooled the Elkton marriage license officials.

Throughout Africa there is a general distrust of the white man, and to call a self-respecting African a white man would be like calling a white southerner a Negro. Pretty much the same holds true of the East Indian. Call the average Indian in his native land a white man and he would be highly insulted.

According to a report in Paris, France, from Berlin, Emperor Tafari has bought the imperial state coach of the ex-Kaiser. In all its old time splendor, redecorated with the Imperial Abyssinian coat-of-arms, the coach rolled thru the streets of Berlin on its way to far-off Africa, where it will be used to convey the black emperor, Tafari, to his coronation soon.

NAMED FIELD OFFICERS

"To Work Among Their Own People" Only—More Segregation and "Jim Crow" From the Governor.

Columbus, O., Oct. 13.—The appointment of Emmett L. Phillips of this city, and Sam V. Perry of Cleveland as field officers in the "jim-crow" bureau of the division of probation and paroles, "to have charge of Negro prisoners in northeastern Ohio," were announced, last week Monday, by the State Board of Welfare. This is Gov. Myers Y. Cooper's way of giving recognition to our voters of Ohio. He restricts our few job-holders in this "jim-crow" bureau to "working among their own people" only. Never before in the history of Ohio has such a rank insult been given to Ohio Afro-Americans. And, too, by a so-called Republican Governor who is a candidate for re-election at this time. During the two years he has been Ohio's chief executive he has not appointed a single member of the race to a position worthy of mention. All he has given us has been the few jobs in his specially organized "jim-crow" bureau, a messenger and some janitors or day-laborers. And he terms this recognition for the nearly two-hundred thousand Afro-American Republicans of this state! LORD, HAVE MERCY!

Coolidge Refused!

Columbus, O.—At the recent state Republican convention here, Sherman Eagle of Gallipolis set off an oratorical Roman candle when he declared that the dedication of the Harding memorial, at Marion, had been unnecessarily delayed, that President Coolidge had declined to make the dedication speech and that so far all efforts to induce President Hoover to come to Marion had proved unavailing.

He Starred!

Geneva, Switzerland. — Milton S. J. Wright, an Afro-American student, graduate of Columbia University of New York City, and now doing graduate study in Europe, made what was unanimously considered "the speech of the evening" at a dinner at the International Club here, Sept. 11, given by students of the summer school sponsored by the International Federation of League of Nations Societies at the University of Geneva, in honor of prominent visitors attending the sessions of the assembly and council of the League of Nations. Lord Willoughby Dickinson, toast-master.

MISS MILDRED C. RIDLEY

Our Most Recent Appointment, Recognition Given By the Local Republican Organization.

Miss Ridley, E. 83rd St., was appointed, last week Saturday, information clerk in the office of the board of county commissioners, having passed a civil service examination for the position in recent months, standing second on the list. She has been employed as a stenographer since last March in the commissioners' office, on a temporary appointment. Credit for the appointment is due the Hon. Maurice Maschke, Atty. Alex Bernstein, Commissioners Cook, Harris and Zmunt and the editor of "The Old Reliable." Miss Ridley, secretary of our Business Girls' club and of the Young Women's Civic club, was for several years stenographer in The Gazette office, the service beginning prior to her graduation from Longwood high school. She has a pleasing personality, is thoroly competent and has "made good" in the commissioners' office, say Messrs. Zmunt, Harris and Cook.

VOTE FOR DAY!

Former State Senator, Now Republican Candidate for County Prosecutor—A Friend of the Race.

Atty. Arthur H. Day, Republican candidate for County Prosecutor, is a native Ohioan, born at Pandora, Putman county, forty years ago; educated in the public schools of Delaware and graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University. He served overseas as a captain in the World war and was wounded and invalided home at its close. Mr. Day served as an assistant law director of Cleveland after his return, and was later elected to the Ohio Senate, being re-elected in 1924, serving four years. His legal experience covers sixteen years of successful practice. He has a wife and two daughters. Mr. Day, a sterling friend of the race, has been active in Republican politics since 1916 and deserves much credit for his excellent record and achievements in public life. The following is from an editorial in The Cleveland Daily News of Oct. 14, '30:

"Arthur H. Day presents the certain prospect of an absolute contrast to Ray T. Miller. As strikingly evidenced in the primary campaign, Mr. Day is independent of machine politics. He approaches the office obligated to the public alone. That cannot be said for Mr. Miller. Arthur H. Day is a trial lawyer of long experience and proven ability. Mr. Miller's prosecutorship has been notable for his deliberate absence from the courtroom. Arthur H. Day by his elections to and service in the state senate has demonstrated his popularity among the voters and his fitness for their trust. He should by all means be chosen over Ray T. Miller."

IMPERIL U. S. SAFETY

MOBS ARE "JIM-CROW" PROPAGANDA FOR THE REDS, SAYS AN N. A. A. C. P. OFFICIAL.

The Congressional Probe of Soviet Discloses Some Very Interesting Facts—Marked Unrest Exists—The U. S. Can't Go On Discriminating, Etc.

New York City.—"One lynching in Mississippi stirs more unrest among Negroes than all the Communist propaganda which can be spread in a year," declared Walter White, acting secretary of the N. A. A. C. P., testifying recently before the Fish Congress committee investigating Communist activities in this country.

"The greatest pro-Communist influence among Negroes in the United States is the lynch-murderer, the Ku Klux Klan, the Black Shirt, the Caucasian Crusader and others who indulge in lynching, disfranchisement, segregation and denial of economic and industrial opportunity.

Need Anti-Lynching Law.

"The thing that can best stop the spread of Communist propaganda among Negroes in this country, in my opinion, is drastic action by the U. S. government and its citizens, to put an end to lynching, segregation, disfranchisement, and other forms of brutal bigotry constantly inflicted with impunity upon law-abiding and loyal colored citizens. If the U. S. government would spend against lynching only as much as this congressional committee costs, that would be at least an earnest that the administration and the national government do have some concern for the lives and property of its eleven million Negro citizens.

Lynchers Not Punished.

"The way to open the minds of Afro-Americans to propaganda from abroad is to convince them that they have no stake in their own land, that they have no rights which cheap demagogues like Gov. Bilbo of Mississippi or Senator Cole Blease or Thomas Heflin are bound to respect, that the known and identified lynchers of two colored boys in Marion, Indiana, can and do laugh at prosecution and the machinery of the law. This association has supplied the Marion authorities the names of twenty-seven of the lynchers. Not one indictment has, after eight weeks, been handed down. The special representative of the Indiana attorney-general has expressed to us the hopelessness, despite the evidence, of any lyncher being punished.

How Russia Acts.

"How can Communism fail to make progress among colored people in the face of such a situation, when Negro newspapers broadcast the recent expulsion from Russia of two Americans, not for lynching but for beating a Negro worker? How can Negroes in America, denied the equality guaranteed them by the Constitution, fail to think when they learn that the Soviet government officially protects their rights in Russia against prejudiced white Americans?

U. S. Can't Go On Lynching.

"Our very freedom from any official or other relation with Communism, Russian or American, and from the Republican, Democratic or Socialist political affiliations, leaves us free to warn America that it must not expect to go on ill-treating, lynching, disfranchising and discriminating against its colored citizens, without having those colored citizens do some thinking. And the Communists are ready to utilize that thinking to their own advantage. It rests with the American people whether or not they will drive loyal, law-abiding and patriotic colored citizens into the arms of Communism and toward left-wing political and social thinking."

List of Contributors.

Mr. White, for the N. A. A. C. P., presented to the Fish Committee a list of all contributors of $50 or more to the work of the Association during the years 1929 and 1930. He also laid before the committee extensive figures showing the discrimination practiced in southern states in the allocation of education funds.

Mr. White cited figures from an article by Fred S. McCuistion, agent for the Julius Rosenwald Fund, published by the George Peabody College for Teachers at Nashville, Tenn., showing that in Coahoma County, Mississipi, the per capita annual expenditure for education out of public funds derived from taxation was $53 for white and $2.39 for Negroes. Other figures from the same source cited by Mr. White are as follows:

| State | Per cent of total population 6 to 13 Negroes | Per cent of total expenditures for education |
|---|---|---|
| South Carolina | 54.9 | 10.66 |
| Mississippi | 53.0 | 10.51 |
| Georgia | 43.5 | 13.33 |
| Louisiana | 39.3 | 9.98 |
| Alabama | 38.9 | 8.40 |
| Florida | 36.9 | 7.91 |
| North Carolina | 31.5 | 12.13 |
| Virginia | 31.3 | 11.09 |

VOTE FOR

Atty. Frank G. Carpenter for Judge of Common Pleas Court.

Atty. Frank G. Carpenter was triumphantly nominated at the primaries, Aug. 12, for common pleas judge of Cuyahoga county for the term ending Dec. 31, 1936, by the large vote of 28,000.

The last Legislature provided for three additional common pleas judges for Cuyahoga County. The three new judges will be elected for six year terms ending December 31, 1936, together with four present judges, who are up for re-election, which means for that term, seven judges are to be elected in November. The judicial ballot at the November election will be non-partisan. None of the Judicial candidates will be under any party designation.

At the coming election, Atty. Carpenter will try to win one of the three new judgeships, and the fact that he polled so many votes at the primaries, augurs well for a victory this fall, together with the fact that he will not have to defeat some one who is already occupying the common pleas bench.

Mr. Carpenter is a man of wide legal experience, having been in the general practice of law for nearly 29 years. He was elected on the Republican ticket and served two terms, four years, as county prosecuting attorney of his native county, and at the present time is law director of Garfield Heights. He has had a great deal of experience in the trial of cases and as counselor; his honesty and integrity is unquestioned, and this background, coupled with his natural ability and splendid judicial temperament, gives him the proper viewpoint to make the right sort of a judge. The editor of The Gazette has known Atty. Carpenter for years and does not hesitate to commend his candidacy to our people in the strongest possible manner. He is splendidly fitted for the position and a sterling friend of the race.

McCULLOCH-BULKLEY.

Robert J. Bulkley, Democratic nominee for U. S. senator, if elected this fall will align himself in the Senate with southern Democrats and inevitably will assist in the legislation detrimental to the race, Maurice Maschke, Republican county leader, said, last week, Thursday night, in opening the Republican campaign in defense of Senator Roscoe C. McCulloch in the third and fourth councilmanic districts. Maschke spoke at a small meeting of the U. N. I. A. at 5300 Woodland Ave. The speech of the local Republican leader indicated the nature of the campaign to be waged by the organization among Afro-American voters in an effort to hold them in line for McCulloch. The N. A. A. C. P. and several of our local leaders have declared against McCulloch and for Bulkley. This action came as a result of Senator McCulloch's vote to seat Judge John J. Parker of North Carolina on the U. S. Supreme Court, on appointment of President Hoover. Maschke charged that Bulkley had been evasive in his reply to the questionnaire mailed him by the N. A. A. C. P. and said that while in the lower house of Congress Bulkley had voted for the Underwood tariff bill, "framed by Oscar Underwood, a southern Democrat." Due to a mixup in speaking arrangements, Maschke addressed only a small crowd. A few blocks down Woodland Ave., the same evening, more than 1,000 persons attended a meeting in Councilman Herman Finkle's headquarters over the Fountain Theater and heard Republican county and legislative candidates.

The statement, last week, in our local contemporary to the effect that the priest in charge of St. Edward's church and parish, in Woodland Ave. opposite Woodland cemetery, had made a statement showing prejudice against our people, or in any way reflecting upon them, is a mistake! He couldn't do such a thing, and wouldn't if he could. A man of his profession, intelligence and experience, in this section of the country, would not be guilty of making such a mistake, especially a priest of the great Catholic church.

COME ON, MEN!

J. W. Wills, Sr., president, and Wm. R. Conners, sec., Welfare league, E. 40th St., this city, a director, of the Empire Savings & Loan Co., called on The Gazette, Monday afternoon, and urged the editor to extend for one week the time limit (Tuesday), noted in the editorial, "Be Loyal and Sensible," published in The Gazette, last week, and republished in this paper. This we readily and willingly did with a sincere hope that our suggestion and earnest recommendation in the editorial be accepted by twenty-four (or more) of our leading, loyal business men so at least five thousand dollars would be raised immediately to be deposited in the company at once to help restore full confidence in that our leading local business enterprise, and the outlook is that this will be done. Stand by The Empire Savings & Loan Co., everybody. Let everyone who can possibly arrange to do so, go to Tried Stone Baptist church, Monday evening, and hear what President Wills, other officers and stockholders of the company have to say. There is no cause for alarm of any kind for the very good reason given in the editorial referred to. Among other speakers at the meeting, Monday evening, will be the editor of The Gazette.

A NEAR RIOT.

Last Saturday, about 9 p. m., two of our young men went to a stand in the Woodland-E. 55th Market and after giving a small order one of them handed a five dollar bill and asked for as much small change in return as he could get. When he was given this, included in which were some pennies, his companion cursed the man waiting on them, using most abusive language, foul oaths. The result was a fight during which the foul-mouthed individual escaped and the one asking the change, innocent of any wrong-doing, was very badly beaten by the police. It is just such miserable experiences as this which hurt our people and make them unwelcome in many public places. Thus the great majority of us are made to suffer insults and mistreatment in public places because of the misconduct and worse of the few. There is no place in the city of Cleveland where our people are treated better than at the Woodland-E. 55th St. market, and there is no stand in that market at which we are treated better than at Mueller's restaurant. He and his assistants are always most courteous as all of our people who patronize his stand freely acknowledge. Therefore, it was little short of an outrage of decency and good treatment for the affair referred to in the foregoing to have been precipitated at the Mueller stand. It is to be sincerely hoped that the offending individual is apprehended by the police and severely punished.

BE LOYAL AND SENSIBLE.

The Empire Savings & Loan Co. held an openmeeting at St. Paul Zion A. M. E. church, Monday evening, with a view to increasing confidence in the stability of the organization. The company's recent cash loss of $4180, because of the unfaithfulness of one of its employees, is fully covered by bond, its officials announce, and that ought to satisfy its stockholders, patrons and the general public, especially that part of it made up by our people. The surest way in the world to cripple, if not destroy, the company, is for those who have invested in it, or have funds on deposit with it, to sell their interest or withdraw their money now, because that would result in a "run" on that business enterprise that would break the average local bank, these days. Don't get scared! Don't get "cold feet"! There is no good reason for it, as the Empire Savings and Loan Co. will go right on living, and living well, unless our people rush in now and wreck it, and that would hurt all of us in this community by destroying the confidence of the other group, as well as many of our own, in our ability to successfully do business of almost any kind. Don't be foolish! Stand by the Empire Savings and Loan Co., now, if ever! There is only one thing to fear and that is the "brother" or "sister" with "cold feet."

To show everybody in the community our confidence in that business enterprise, let us do something material, at once—the thing that will restore confidence and help when it is most needed! What twenty-four persons will join the editor of The Gazette in depositing $100 or $200 cash, each, in the Empire Savings & Loan Co., Tuesday, as "an earnest of good will?" Come on now, you "leading local Negroes of Cleveland"! What say you?

ALL MUST VOTE FOR JERRY!

Jerry R. Zmunt, the ablest County Commissioner Cuyahoga County has ever had, is seeking re-election on his record in public office, particularly his achievements in the office of County Commissioner where he has served so exceptionally well for nine years. He has full knowledge of the county's requirements, the complicated legislative procedure, financing and budget methods.

As an active representative of the people, Jerry Zmunt has been primarily responsible for developing progressive, efficient and impartial policies in the conduct of county affairs. The latter is proved by his stand, several months ago, against the annexation of a section of Miles

Heights to the City of Cleveland which would have left our people out there alone.

His appreciation of human values and understanding of the county's health and welfare problems, together with his intimate knowledge of the laws, governing the operation and management of the many welfare activities under control of the County Commissioners, makes him an invaluable public servant, and this alone should be sufficient to guarantee his triumphant re-election, Nov. 4, '30.

In addition to this, Jerry Zmunt has always been a sterling friend of our people, and pledges himself to continue impartial, honest, fearless and efficient management of the business of Cuyahoga County, as a member of the Board of County Commissioners.

Vote for Jerry R. Zmunt, our friend!

SHERIFF IS ACCUSED OF NEGLECT OF DUTY IN INDIANA LYNCHING.

Marion, Ind., Oct. 15. — Jacob Campbell, sheriff of Grant County and also county Republican chairman, tonight was charged with neglect of official duty in connection with the lynching by a mob of two Afro-American youths in the Public Square here the night of Aug. 7. Seven other men were charged with participation in the lynching. Affidavits were filed here this afternoon by James M. Ogden, attorney general of Indiana, who explained that he was acting, as authorized by a seldom used law, because the Grant County grand jury, after an investigation, failed to indict anyone and instead officially exonerated Campbell. The two youths were alleged to have confessed they had murdered a Grant County young man and attacked his girl escort when they held them up Aug. 6. Sheriff Campbell has surrendered to Coroner O. L. Stout and says as soon as the amount of bond required of him is set, he will post it and be prepared to serve the warrants on the seven alleged members of the mob named in the affidavit. If convicted, Campbell will be removed from office and fined. Ogden may ask for a change of venue from Grant County, a strong Ku Klux Klan area.

OHIO'S MOB VIOLENCE ACT

OR ANTI-LYNCHING LAW LEADS THE COUNTRY IN EFFECTIVE LEGISLATION

Against the Mob and Lynch-Murder—Three Years' Work of a Member of the Race—Also His Ohio Civil Rights Law.

Our mob violence or anti-lynching bill was introduced in the Ohio legislature in 1894 and re-introduced in 1896. It took the Hon. Harry C. Smith, editor of The Gazette, just three years to secure its enactment into law. The Ohio Supreme Court has several times upheld the constitutionality of the law and it has been very effective. Illinois, Pennsylvania and New Jersey have followed Ohio's lead and enacted mob violence or anti-lynching laws which are copies of our Ohio law. Several other northern states and at least one border state (Kentucky) have also enacted anti-lynching laws, in recent years, like Pennsylvania and New Jersey The Ohio law follows:

MOBS.

Section
6278. "Mob" and "lynching" defined.
6279. "Serious injury" defined.
6280. Damages in case of assault.
6281. Damages in case of lynching.
6282. Damages recoverable by legal representative of victim of lynching
6283. Person suffering death or injury by mob trying to lynch another.
6284. Limitations of action.
6285. Order to include recovery and costs in tax levy.
6286. Guardian's custody, etc., fees.
6287. County's right of action against member of mob
6288. County's right of action against another county.
6289. Non-relief from prosecution.

Section 6278. A collection of people assembled for an unlawful purpose and intending to do damage or injury to any one, or pretending to exercise correctional power over other persons by violence and without authority of law, shall be deemed a "mob" for the purpose of this chapter. An act of violence by a mob upon the body of any person shall constitute a "lynching" within the meaning of this chapter. (93 v. 161 2.)

Section 6279. The term "serious injury," for the purpose of this chapter, shall include such inquiry as permanently or temporarily disables the person receiving it from earning a livelihood by manual labor. (93 v. 161 3.)

Section 6280. A person taken from officers of justice by a mob and assaulted with whips, clubs, missiles or in any other manner, may recover, as hereafter provided, a sum not to exceed one thousand dollars as damages from the county in which the assault is made. (93 v. 161 4.)

Section 6281. A person assaulted and lynched by a mob may recover, from the county in which such assault is made a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars; or, if the injury received therefrom is serious, a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars; or, if such injury result in permanent disability, to earn a livelihood by manual labor, a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars. (93 v. 12 5.)

Section 6282. The legal representative of a person dying from injuries received from lynching by a mob, may recover of the county in which such injury occurred, a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars damages for such unlawful killing. Such sum shall be applied to the maintenance of the family and education of the minor children of such person so lynched, if any survive him, until such children are of legal age, and then be distributed to the survivors, share and share alike, the widow receiving an amount equal to a child's share. If there be no widow or minor children surviving such decedent, such sum shall be distributed among the next of kin according to the laws of the distribution of the personality of an intestate. Such sum so recovered shall not be a part of the estate of such person so lynched, nor be subject to any of his liabilities. (93 v. 162 6.)

Section 6283. A person suffering death or injury from a mob attempting to lynch another person shall come within the provisions of this chapter. He or his legal representatives shall have a like right of action as one purposely injured or killed by such a mob. (93 v. 162 6.)

Section 6284. Action for the recoveries provided for in this chapter must be commenced, within two years from the date of such lynching, in any court having original jurisdiction of an action for damages for malicious assault. (93 v. 162 7.)

Section 6285. An order to the commissioners of a county, against which such recovery is had, to include it with the costs of action, in the next succeeding tax levy for such county, shall be a part of the judgment in every such case. (93 v. 162 8.)

Section 6286. If the decedent so lynched has minor children surviving him, the fund shall be turned over to a regularly appointed guardian. Such guardian shall administer such fund under the direction of the probate judge, allowing not more than five hundred dollars for counsel fees in the action for such recovery. (93 v. 162 9.)

Section 6287. The county, in which a lynching occurs, may recover the amount of a judgment and costs against it in favor of the legal representatives of a person killed or seriously injured by a mob from any of the persons composing such mob. A person present, with hostile intent, at such lynching shall be deemed a member of the mob and be liable to such action. (93 v. 162 10.)

Section 6288. If a mob carries a prisoner into another county, or comes from another county to commit violence on a prisoner brought from such county for safekeeping, the county in which the lynching is committed may recover the amount of the judgment and costs from the county from which the mob came, unless there was contributory negligence on the part of officials of such county in failing to protect such prisoner or dispurse such mob. (93 v. 163 11.)

Section 6289. This chapter shall not relieve a person concerned in such lynching from prosecution for homicide or assault for engaging therein. (93 v. 163 12.)

OUR OHIO CIVIL RIGHTS LAW

Upon the request of many readers of The Gazette we print below the text of the Hon. Harry C. Smith's Ohio Civil Rights law which the editor had enacted while a member of the 71st General Assembly, in 1894:

The General Code of Ohio:

Sec. 12940. Whoever, being the proprietor or his employee, keeper or manager of an inn, restaurant, eating house, barber-shop, public conveyance by land or water, theater or other place of public accommodation and amusement, denies to a citizen, except for reasons applicable alike to all citizens and regardless of race or color, the full enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, or both.

Sec. 12941. Whoever violates the next preceding section shall also pay not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundreds dollars to the person aggrieved thereby to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county where such offense was committed.

This law has repeatedly been held constitutional and good law by the Ohio Supreme court. The trouble is our people will not use it as often as they should, but expect it to do for them what they should and must do for themselves, under it, in the courts.

Wilberforce Wins, 38-0.

Xenia, O. — Wilberforce College scored its second straight football victory here, last Saturday, defeating North Carolina "State," 39 to 0. The locals used three full teams and scored 23 first downs to North Carolina's 4. It was Carolina's third straight defeat.

Taylor to Fight 'Keed'.

Spokane, Wash. — Eddie Long, manager of Bud Taylor, Terre Haute (Ind.) bantamweight boxer, announces that he has signed Taylor to meet Kid Chocolate, sensational Afro-Cuban boxer, in a ten-round match in Madison Square Garden, N. Y. City.

Mayberry Fooled Them.

Baltimore, Md.—On Oct. 4, Johns Hopkins University football team played the Upsala College eleven but not until the former had successfully protested the playing of Pastor Quallo, the dark-skinned Afro-Cuban half-back of the Upsala team. After the game, it leaked out that the fair-skinned John Mayberry, who not only piloted his team as quarter-back but furnished many of the thrills of the game by his spectacular playing, was an "Afro." Mayberry spent the night previous to the game in the Knights of Columbus club here, from which Quallo was barred, and enjoyed a hearty meal at its restaurant.

At the East End Republican club meeting, Tuesday evening, Atty. Charlie White again undertook to make the members of that organization believe that he is correct in his "Martin" statement and that Mr. Emmett Meads is not. He will hardly succeed for reasons stated in the article headed "Which Is the Prevaricator?" to be found elsewhere in The Gazette.

The restaurant in The Travelers' hotel, 2453 E. 55th St., opposite Scovill Ave., was reopened, Saturday, by Mrs. B. Burley, a first-class cook and an experienced restaurant-teur. Manager T. D. Johnson of the hotel is making a determined effort to materially improve its accommodations and is succeeding. The Burley restaurant will prove a boone to the hotel's patrons and the public. Everybody welcome!

Rev. J. Albert Sterrett's address, "Messin' 'Round", Thursday evening, at St. John's A. M. E. church, proved exceptionally interesting and pleasing. Dr. Sterrett is a fluent and very effective speaker, and deep thinker. There were several musical numbers. The entertainment was sponsored by the Laymen's league of Cuyahoga county of which Mr. Roy Rector is founder and president.

A fellowship dinner will be held, Oct. 27 at 5 p. m., at the P. W. Spirituals and folk songs will be sung to illustrate an address to be given on this topic. Plates for the dinner, $1 each.

All roads lead to Simon's Grocery Store, 4707 Central Ave., where "our George" (Sisco) holds forth as manager, much to the satisfaction of about all of our people in that section of the city, at least. Don't fail to patronize Simon's Grocery Store in preference to any other in that vicinity. Why? Because he has all Colored employees and treats them properly, and all others courteously who come into his place of business.

The U. S. Supreme court did not, as announced last week in the local daily papers, take any action, Monday, on Thos. W. Fleming's appeal for a review of his case with a view to getting a new trial, and also failed to act on the belated motion of County Prosecutor Ray T. Miller to have Fleming's appeal dismissed, possibly because Miller's motion was not filed until last week. The court may hand down, next week, its decision as to granting Fleming's appeal.

The following is a schedule for city and county Civil service examinations for November. Additional information can be secured at the office of the commission at City hall. There will be a mass meeting, to which everyone is invited, at Tried Stone Baptist church, Monday evening, in the interest of the Empire Savings & Loan Co. President Wills, other officers and stockholders of the company, the editor of The Gazette and others will speak. Do not fail to attend and get whatever information you may desire. There is no good cause for alarm, as stated elsewhere in this paper in the editorial headed, "Be Loyal and Sensible."

Alvin J. Pearson, presiding judge of the court of domestic relations of Cuyahoga county, will address the young people's forum of Avery A. M. E. church, E. 28th St., Sunday, Oct. 19, at 4 p. m., says Rev. Thos. H. Chryer, pastor. His subject will be, "The Problem of the Divorce Court." The judge will be introduced by Atty. Norman L. McGhee who recently served as a bailiff in Judge Pearson's court. Do not forget to vote for Judge Pearson in November.

Last week Thursday, "Hoover day" in Cleveland, "a bunch of (Communist) paraders started to run up E. 12th St. and I sent some of my motorcycle men to order them to turn around," Capt. Savage said. "The next thing I knew I heard windows crashing and I saw a colored fellow with his mouth bleeding who had been arrested." Of all the scores of Communists trying to "raise cain," last week Thursday, the "Colored brother" (Communist) was the only one to get hurt (and he got it in the mouth.) As usual. Too bad!

Last week, Monday, in Judge Lee E. Skeel's municipal court, Albert J. Maxwell, 6504 Woodland Ave., was awarded judgment for $400 for injuries received at the hands of a mob while working, Feb. 19, 1930, for the Kinsman Building Supply Co. in an apartment house, located at E. 75th and Hough Ave. Maxwell was represented by Atty. Chester K. Gillespie, and the case was prosecuted under Hon. Harry C. Smith's Ohio Mob Violence Act or Anti-Lynching law. Atty. Gillespie says: "Judge Skeel deserves a great deal of praise for having the courage to enforce the law which was enacted many years ago as a result of your (the editor's) far-sightedness and industry."

In a letter to the editor of The Gazette, the Hon. Harry E. Davis, chairman of the executive committee of the Cleveland arrangements committee for the annual meeting of "The Association for the Study of Afro-American Life & History," which is to be held here from Oct. 26 to 30, writes that the local committee "has arranged a program of meetings and entertainment consistent with the dignity and importance of this organization to whom we are hosts. This, of course, has involved a financial obligation which has been kept down to the minimum. We (the committee) are now urging that all contributions be sent in at once to enable us to take care of all commitments before the conference convenes."

One of our local professional men has sent The Gazette the following with the request that it be published: "Unions are an illegal combination in violation of the anti-trust laws. They are organized to prevent competition. By force, threats and intimidation they often prevent citizens and workers from enjoying their rights as citizens. The employees of the local hotels should apply for an injunction against union interference. To change workers now would be an act of discrimination against law-abiding citizens for another group, mostly illegal, irresponsible, law-defying, many unnaturalized people. Should any of the hotel-workers lose their jobs now because of the unions, the worker could sue the union for his wages for an average lifetime.—X. Y. Z."

Insist on your friends going to the Woodland-E. 55th St. market. It is convenient, has everything you want and at the most reasonable prices. Hundreds of our people patronize this market but many more should do so, because it is the best in the city. Mueller's restaurant-stand, just inside of the Woodland Ave. entrance of the market, serves you the best food, gives you the best srevice and most courteous treatment to be found anywhere in this city. Try his boneless blue pike, his tender and toothsome roast-beef just one time and you will agree with us. Several weeks ago, we called attention to the fact that the chef was an artist. We weren't joking, but meant just exactly what we said. Go in and see for yourself if what we have said, in the foregoing, is not "the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth."

If the daily newspaper announcement, reproduced elsewhere in this paper, of the appointment of Sam V. Perry by Gov. Myers Y. Cooper or his director of state welfare, Hal H. Griswold, is correct, the appointment, limiting Perry to work among "members of his own race" only, is an insult to Ohio Afro-Americans and the publication of the fact is but adding injury to insult. Also, the segregated bureau for Ohio Afro-Americans only, of Director Griswold's state department of public welfare is another insult and injury the governor should be held responsible for. The bureau was created to provide a job for that Ku Klux Klan sympathizer and co-worker, Rev. E. W. B. Curry, of Springfield, who died, several months ago. Curry was the only well-known Afro-American in the state of Ohio that Myers Y. Cooper could get to espouse his cause when a candidate for governor the first time, four years ago, and was defeated.

Dr. Homer G. Cox, a clerk in Street Commissioner Dombey's department, was remembered with a raise in salary, the first of the month. A splendid beginning, Mr. Dombey.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, E. 126th St., royally entertained their niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Brown of Lexington, Ky., at dinner, Oct. 9. Others present: Mrs. M. Huston of Los Angeles, sister of Mrs. A. L. Boone; Mrs. Lovie Bowen, Mrs. Ida Hamilton, Mr. E. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Winslow, Mrs. Joe Hedges, Mrs. Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, J. F. Hamlett, Mr. and Mrs. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. Parkham.

OBITUARY.

The sudden death, Saturday morning, of Atty. Wm. R. Green, son of ex-State Senator John P. Green, was a shock to the community. Apparently big and healthy, he had suffered from high blood-pressure and indigestion, for several years. He dropped dead in the morning as he was about to leave home at 10809 Earle Ave. Heart attack. Wm. R. Green was born in Cleveland, in 1872, and would have been 58 years of age had he lived until the tenth of next month. He was a graduate of our local public schools and studied law in his father's office, being admitted to the bar, 36 years ago. He was a captain in the O. N. G. for twelve years before the World War and was in Virginia, on the coast enroute to France, when relieved of service and returned home because of physical disability. Atty. Green was a member of the Early Settlers' Association, Cuyahoga Bar Association, Elks, N. A. A. C. P., and St. Aloysius Catholic church where funeral services were held, Tuesday morning, the priest in charge officiating. It was largely attended and in charge of Slaughter Bros., undertakers. Many old residents of both groups were in attendance upon the funeral, as well as a number of judges and prominent members of the local Bar. Interment in Calvary cemetery. He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Agnes Bolden Green; his father, a brother, Jesse, who resides in the East, and a sister, Mrs. Christopher Johnson of this city. All have the heartfelt sympathy of the community.

He don't want pitchers who can win ball games because I guess you see where I shut the A's out, 7 and 0, and then he asks for waivers on me. All he wants is these big boobs who can get the suckers into his customer trap. It didn't hurt my feelings none because I couldn't get along with Ruth and Meusel and these here other leading ladies. So here's the big laugh. All the American League clubs waived on me and the Pitts. Pirates picked me up and now I'm in a Big League and it looks like a World's Series for me.

MILLINERS MAKING A FEATURE OF YOUTHFUL, NOVELTY FELTS

IN CITING the increasing importance of the felt hat, it is necessary to prefix the word felt with some such explanatory adjective as "different," "novel," "unusual," or "out-of-the-ordinary." For that is exactly what the new felts are. The whole program of felts is one of refreshing novelty not only in the versatility of the felts themselves which include every type from bodies to felt ribbon, felt stripping or fine felt braid which is worked or woven like straw, but the originality with which these various felt media are manipulated creates an entirely new impression.

That the milliner has succeeded in incorporating that greatly coveted quality, "youth" in the new models adds greatly to the prestige of the 1930-31 felts.

The felts pictured are a representative group sponsored by American millinery fashioned authorities. The first model shown is the very essence of youth. In Paris they are making much of this style which sets way back on the head, and which, incidentally, is increasing the hairdresser's income materially since a perfect coiffure is essential to complete the picture. It is made of an exquisite body of lightweight soleil with a two-tone chenille trim.

At the top to the right is one of those clever affairs conjured of wide felt ribbon, a medium widely employed this season.

An adorable little model is centered to the left. It is designed in supple marble green felt, achieving in its deft draping a quaint bonnet effect. A cluster of tiny ostrich tips are stationed at the back, which goes to show how cleverly milliners are positioning bright feather novelties this season.

It is a case of "love at first sight" for the stunning beret to the right whose intricate seaming and classic drape gives it distinction.

The group concludes with a Patou model. It is a small felt bicorne, caught across the back with a tailored stitched band of self felt which is attached with buttons.

DRESS WITH A CONTRASTING YOKE PROVES A MOST PLEASING TYPE

ONE of the most alluring themes which has to do with costume design for the season 1930-1931 is that of the dress with a contrasting yoke. In the idea not only is unusual appeal made to creative genius to whom it opens an avenue of infinite possibilities, but of all types there is none more flattering to its wearer than the dress topped with a different yoke.

Not only does this flair for contrast manifest itself in daytime frocks but its influence extends to most formal evening modes. Since the glittering note is so necessary this season to formality in dress, many a velvet, satin, crepe or chiffon dress glories in a flattering transparent yoke resplendently worked with sparkling beads or sequins. Perhaps the yoke is of exquisite lace. Indeed some of the lace yokes are that deep they extend almost to the waistline outlining as they do deep points or scallops where they join the material of the dress.

The smart black crepe chiffon afternoon dress in the picture is styled with a yoke and half sleeves of white crepe chiffon. The lower part of the skirt falls in graceful folds and is embroidered in silver. Too much emphasis cannot be placed on the importance of black-and-white both in day and night fashions.

A strictly up-to-the-mode dinner gown designed for the social season responds to the call for black-and-white at the same time that it highspots a contrasting yoke, in that its lower portion of softly draped black transparent velvet is topped with an almost-to-the-waistline yoke of ivory white velvet. Elaborately designed black-and-white jewelry accents the ensemble theme for this costume.

OIL GAUGE WILL PREVENT INJURY

Only Indicator Driver Has to Tell if Something Is Wrong.

The oil gauge is one of the most important instruments on an automobile. The presence of the oil gauge on an instrument board, plus the driver's understanding of it, can prevent damage to the car.

The oil gauge, an engineering bulletin says, is the only indicator the driver has to tell if something goes wrong with the oil supply. If the oil does not circulate, or if there is no oil, the gauge will register zero.

Time to Drive Carefully.

Starting with a cold engine the oil is heavy, and although the gauge indicates a high pressure, very little oil flows through the bearings to be sprayed on the cylinder walls. That is the time to drive carefully and at a moderate speed and not abuse the engine. As the engine warms up a reduction in oil pressure will be noticed as the oil flows freely through the bearings and the operating parts are properly lubricated.

Every type engine has its own average operating pressure, which the motorist should learn from his instruction manual. Any change from this pressure, except higher pressure when the engine is cold, should be investigated at once. Extreme low pressure reading might indicate loose bearings, loose connections in oil line, lack of oil, or oil thinned by dilution.

Function of Oil Gauge.

The function of the oil gauge is to tell if the engine's oiling system is working. It does not, of course, indicate the quantity of oil in the crankcase or condition of the oil filter, the latter a device through which the oil is filtered and kept clean and which should be periodically serviced.

Engineers Study Wind Resistance as Factor

Automotive engineers are now turning their attention to wind resistance as traffic is being speeded up throughout the country, according to the Hoosier Motor club.

The motoring body pointed out that improvement on highways has largely overcome the road and rolling resistance, and with liberalized speed laws, wind resistance has become a factor in maintaining the speed of the car.

"While perfect streamlining is the ideal method of overcoming this resistance," says the statement, "and has been used with telling effect on cars entered for speed records, such a step for passenger cars is impractical due to larger bodies and the acute traffic conditions. The tendency today is toward smaller bodies.

"As an alternative step, however, engineers are considering partial streamlining and modification of the present lines of the car with promise of a considerable reduction of wind resistance."

Check All Repair Jobs to Unearth Accidents

Whenever the car has been to a repair shop, it is well to check it over carefully to make sure that no accidental damage has been done. In working on the motor one mechanic accidentally struck the radiator overflow pipe, pinching it, but forgot to straighten it out before delivering the car.

Carburetors that have been removed are apt to pick up dirt from the work bench. A little carbon clogged in one of the vents will cause some very perplexing trouble.

It is not uncommon for mechanics to leave tools around the engine. This may result in serious trouble. In one case a large wrench jammed in such a way that the accelerator could not be pressed all the way down when the driver needed power.

A small wrench left to rattle around the top of the battery may cause a short circuit accompanied by stalling at some moment when power may be badly needed.

Federal Road Aid Plan Is Praised by Official

Commendation of the federal government's apportionment just made of the 1932 federal aid highway funds, totaling $121,000,000, was voiced at Los Angeles by officials of the Federal Motor club through Arthur Goulson, its general manager.

"Any move on the part of the federal or state governments to speed up highway construction will meet with the whole-hearted approval of the motorists of the country," Goulson said. "The apportionment at this time of the funds available July 1, 1931, makes it possible for the states to anticipate their resources, thus serving the two-fold purpose of speeding highway construction, which is greatly needed, and also relieving unemployment.

"As a result of increased federal aid, the years of 1930-31 will mark the peak of highway construction in the United States. The total to be spent by the federal, state and county highway departments in these two years will aggregate $3,500,000,000. Total appropriations for the current year are $1,726,167,000, or an average of $66.35 for each automobile registered in the United States."

Handy Arrangement of Unmatched Garage Doors

It is customary to make the doors of equal width on the ordinary 12 by 18-foot home garage. With doors of this width it is necessary to open first one door and then go back and open the other one. If one door is made extra wide and the other narrow, as shown in the illustration, time is saved because the narrow door can be pushed all the way open even in a strong wind, while a hold is still retained on the other.

An equal amount of time can be saved in closing the doors. Simply walk in with the wide door till you reach a point where the edge of the short door may be grasped and then continue in with both doors.—Popular Science Monthly.

AUTOMOBILE FACTS

Check air pressure in tires weekly.

If aviation keeps on it will be as dangerous as motoring.

Southeastern states are spending $170,000,000 this year for highway improvements and maintenance.

If the seat is adjustable as to back angle as well as in relation to the clutch and brake pedals, the car owner should be certain that the adjustment suits him.

When giving attention to the tires, do not forget the spare. Keep it inflated to the proper pressure, see that it also has a dust cap. A tire cover is to be recommended strongly.

Do not park on curves, crests of hills and road intersections. Always leave the maximum amount of space for other vehicles to pass when stopping temporarily or parking.

That wheel "wobble" inherit in the design of the car shows up mostly at higher speeds. If the wheels shake at lower rates it probably is due to looseness or wear rather than design.

SEMI-AUTOMATIC "LIFE SAVING FENDER"

A pedestrian is shown a fraction of a second after he had been struck by an automobile traveling at the rate of 20 miles per hour. That he escaped injury is due to the semi-automatic "life-saving fender" with which the car is equipped. J. A. Schoutz demonstrated the device to a group of automotive engineers. The mechanism is released by the driver by means of a pedal projecting from the floor board.

HEAR! HEAR!! The ROUNDER WHAT'S DOING!

Councilman Clayborne George said in his speech, in a house-political meeting held at Mrs. Lilly Mason's, last week Thursday evening, that he was NOT going to vote for Senator Roscoe C. McCulloch, and then talked against scratching the Republican ticket. Inconsistent as usual! This is the third or fourth "break," in as many months, in "The Blossom Triplets." The other two changed their stand against the Senator in recent weeks, declaring for him; rather faintly, it is true. Councilman Payne only murmured his, while Councilman Bundy seems to have lost his voice and activity in the last four or five weeks. Poor "Blossom Triplets!"

It is said that Allen H. Dorsey has established a "Bulkley" headquarters at 8704 Cedar Ave., in which Rev. D. O. Walker is blowing Democratic "bubbles." "Politics make strange bed fellows," because up-to-date these two gentlemen have never agreed politically, it seems. Walker is quietly supporting John Sulzmann, and other Democratic candidates. It is also said that none of our local citizens have as yet been able to have a conference with Senator Roscoe C. McCulloch and that the Hon. Harry E. Davis and Atty. Wm. R. Green sought one in vain, early last week. Many of St. James A. M. E. church's members are not impressed with Bulkley because he failed to answer squarely the questions put to him in regards to the rights of our people but evaded, dodged or gave ambiguous answers to most of them.

A COUNT LOVES HER.

Daughter of Mrs. Mollie Church Terrell—Met Her Abroad—The Count a Stowaway on a French Liner Arrives to See His "Fiancee."

Washington, D. C.—Count Rudolph de Kulpanek Klaudenstein arrived in N. Y. City, recently, as a stowaway on the "De Grass" to see his alleged "fiancee," Phyllis Terrell Goines, adopted daughter of Judge Terrell's widow, and school teacher. While held at Ellis Island, the Count told of having met in Paris, this summer, the young lady who is the estranged wife of a Freedman's hospital interne, when she visited Europe with her foster mother, and to have become madly infatuated with her tho he knew of her racial identity. Mrs. Terrell says: "I am well acquainted with the Count and his sister, Stephanie, who is a very pretty and charming woman and entertained daughter and myself in their beautiful home near Paris, this summer."

The Truth Abroad.

Paris, France.—Helen O. Crowe (white), writing in the Chicago Tribune (Paris edition) on the expulsion of two white Americans from Russia for their mistreatment of a black worker, there, feels that the two got their just deserts. She adds that the conduct of white people in the South (U. S.) toward the Negro is extraordinary since white southerners carry Negro blood in their veins, because of centuries of mixing. "Ignorance and insensitiveness," she says, "is the cause of the extraordinary attitude of the majority of persons from Southern states, the more so because they are blood relatives of the Negro population, whose color ranges from black to white."

Charm in Knitted Golf Suit

SIMPLICITY is a blessed note in active sports clothes chosen by the woman of taste this season. While afternoon frocks for teas and bridge may be all frilly and fully as feminine as one desires, those for out-and-out sports occasion remain smartly unadorned and distinguished by quiet tailoring.

Illustrated is a very lovely little golf frock, the salient decoration of which lies in the way the material is cut and fitted. If one wants to go back to possible Parisian origins for such things, there is doubtless a note from Madame Vionnet in this dress.

The material is knitted, although it looks woven, so closely and carefully do the stitches close in upon one another. Various names have been given this type of knitted sports frock, but most of us just call them mesh knit durenes, thus referring to the type of knitting and the quality of textile used. Cheaper knits, and less resilient yarns would naturally sag and shrink. This combination holds its shape and is capable of lasting the season through even with many launderings.

The young lady with the beret strikes another fashion note in that this adjunct for sports headwear is made of the identical material found in the dress with which it is worn. Both are a yellow green edged with green of a deeper, but also yellowish shade.

Ready for a Good Night's Sleep

WHAT to dress the baby in at night is not, to be sure a tremendous problem, but it is something of a question when one is away at a summer resort where the early evening is apt to be warm, cooling off after midnight. Many wise mothers prefer a little "tuck-me-in" nightie which can be drawn together at the bottom around the little feet and which has long sleeves and a fairly high neck.

The question then is that baby may not be too warm the early part of the evening. The secret is to have a material so porous, absorbent, soft and closely knitted that it will be comfortable whether breezes are cool or warm. Given this in one of the new porous knits such as those made of soft, gentle durene yarns, one needs merely to leave the bottom of the skirt and wrist strings untied until the night breezes are up. Then mother or nurse goes in and tucks baby up for the remainder of the night.

The young lady pictured seems to register an angelic goodnight look and wide-eyed contentment in her little durene mesh tuck-me-in.
